Erected in 1936, the entire structure reflects the architectural style developed by missionaries, combining the building patterns of the Pueblo Indians with Spanish-Colonial design. Even the landscaping, with carefully selected shrubs and trees is typical.

Fr. Steve

This Sunday we celebrate the Feast of the Body and Blood of Christ ("Corpus Christi"). This feast began in 1261 as a way of showing great reverence and love for Christ present in a special way in the Holy Eucharist. In today's Gospel Reading (Mark 14:12ff) we hear how Jesus at the Last Supper gave us himself in the Holy Eucharist: "Take it; this is my body...This is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many." The word "covenant" is found in all three Readings today. "Covenant" means "agreement" or "promise" that God makes with us in the Blood of Christ: we are his people, he is our God. In the Eucharist we celebrate this Holy Communion - oneness with God and with each other in Christ. Our "Amen" at Holy Communion expresses our response: "Yes, I believe, this is Jesus who comes to me now in a Holy Communion with God and all others who share this Eucharist." Nourished and strengthened by Christ in Holy Communion, and by his Real Presence with us in the Eucharist in the Tabernacle, we can go and be the presence of Christ in the world, reaching out in compassion to all.

- The annual commissioning ceremony for Eucharistic Ministers will take place after the homily at each Mass this Sunday. We are blessed to have many parishioners serving in this "great ministry of love" (in the words of Pope Paul VI). If you are interested in being a Eucharistic Minister at Mass on Sunday or in bringing Holy Communion to the sick or shut-ins at home or in nursing homes, please contact our Pastor, Father Steve.
- The special collection for the Retirement Fund for priests of the Archdiocese of Los Angeles takes place at all Masses this Sunday. We are blessed to have two retired priests at Our Lady of Mount Carmel, Fr. Maurice O' Mahony and Fr. Carroll O'Sullivan. Your generous donation in the special collection this Sunday helps the Retirement Fund for all priests of the Archdiocese. Please use the special envelopes in the pews for your donation to his cause in the one collection at Offertory time. Many thanks for your generous response.
- Congratulations and blessings on all graduates - from elementary, high school, college or university. We will remember you in our prayers as you continue your unique and exciting adventure in life.

- Our Pastor, Father Steve, will be away this week from Monday to Thursday at St. John's Seminary, Camarillo, for the annual continuing education program for priests of the Archdiocese.
- Online giving is now available at Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church. Online giving is a convenient and safe way to make your donations which show your love for God and his Church. Just visit our parish website at www.mtcarmelsb.com and click on Giving (or DONATE) link/tab.

Safeguard Our Children
Safety Is An Important Part Of Summer Fun

School is almost out, and many new opportunities for recreation and relaxation await. Maybe you are sending your children to a music or sports camp? Or maybe they have been invited by their friends to go camping in the mountains or at the beach? Whatever the situation, it is important to remember that parents have the responsibility of controlling access that new people will have to their children. If your child will attend a summer camp, insist that counselors or anyone else who might have access to your children have undergone an application process that includes a criminal background check and reference checks.

WHOLE COMMUNITY FAITH SHARING
Week of June 5th - Mark 14:12-16

Reflection: In today's Gospel, we celebrate Corpus Christi. This wonderful sacrament of the Eucharist, which is the memorial of Jesus Christ's passion, death and resurrection. Through this celebration of the Eucharist we publicly proclaim the sacrifice of Christ is for the salvation of the whole world. The Eucharist is a daily reminder of the unique and unending event that transforms our lives. Jesus died for our sins so that we might have eternal life. May we continue to embrace this wonderful gift.

Question: How does the Eucharist keep me in relationship with Jesus?

Faith Response: I will reflect on the words, "Jesus tells us that through the Eucharist we will remain in him and He in us."

YAM' — OLMC Young Adult Ministry'

We are young adults between the ages of 18 to 39 who strive to develop our Catholic identity, strengthen our relationship with Christ, with one another, and with the wider community. We do this by planning and participating in a variety of spiritual, social, and service opportunities. Theology on Tap, Retreats, Food drives and much more.

Please contact Sarah Mack Youth/Young Adult Minister @ 805-574-9941 or olmc93108@gmail.com to be added to our email list.

OUR PARISH FINANCES

Many thanks for all your generous contributions to our Church in the Offertory Collection each Sunday. Here is the report on the Offertory Collection for Sunday May 9th/10th:

|                                  |             |
|----------------------------------|-------------|
| Envelopes & Plate Collection     | $7,300     |
| Donations for Maintenance | $75 |
| Total                            | $7,375     |

As mentioned in last Sunday's bulletin, the average collection would need to reach $8,500 each Sunday to avoid another parish operating deficit for the fiscal year which ends on June 30th. Your generous contributions fund all the parish worship, religious, educational and service programs of the parish.

Online giving is now available at Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church. Just visit our parish website at www.mtcarmelsb.com and click on Giving (or DONATE) link/tab.

Many thanks and God's blessings on you and your family.

SCOUTING AND SCOUT AWARDS

Our parish is blessed with wonderful Boy Scout and Girl Scout groups. On Scout Sunday, February 22nd, some of the Scouts received their Scout religious awards at the Scout Mass in our Church. On May 17th at the 89th Annual Religious Emblems Presentation Mass at the Cathedral in Los Angeles Matthew Helkey of our parish received the Ad Altare Dei award which is the highest religious award given to a Scout at the Elementary School level. Congratulations, Matthew on this great achievement.

On Sunday last the Bridging Ceremony took place at Manning Park in Montecito and three Cub Scouts celebrated the receiving of all the Cub Scout awards and the Light of the Arrow Award and then crossed over from the Cub Scouts to the Boy Scouts. Congratulations to Rowen Manriquez, Braeden Clausen and Sean Kelly and their parents and Cub Scout leaders.

At the same time our Pastor, Father Steve, was presented with the St. George Emblem, a national recognition presented at the Archdiocesan level to laity and clergy who have made significant contributions to the spiritual development of Catholic youth through Scouting.

Scouting offers a wonderful formation for young people. Parents: Scouting can be a great blessing for your children - all are welcome in our parish groups: Cub Scout Pack 108; Boy Scout Troop 33 and Senior Girl Scout Troop 550270 and other Girl Scout Troops for the younger girls.

Thousands of faithful from throughout the Archdiocese celebrate the eight newly ordained priest – double the number from 2014

Archbishop José H. Gomez ordained eight new priests last Sunday, May 31st, for the Archdiocese of Los Angeles at the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels in downtown Los Angeles.

The men who entered the priesthood are Fr. Gabriel Kang, Fr. Jonathon Meyer, Fr. Juan Cano, Fr. Luis Estrada, Fr. Marinello Saguin, Fr. Parker Sandoval, Fr. Raymont Medina and Fr. Simeon Song.

“Every new priest is a living image of Jesus Christ. And every ordination is a sign of his final promise — that he will be with us until the end of the age,” said Archbishop Gomez during the homily. Archbishop Gomez called the new priests to “be men of mercy and give of themselves to others with the loving heart of a servant.”

All of the new priests completed their theological formation at St. John’s Seminary in Camarillo, including service as transitional deacons and year-long internships at Archdiocesan parishes.

“The Holy Spirit is still calling men to give of themselves completely in the service of Christ and his church as priests. In a world of instant self-gratification many Catholic men are still choosing a life of self-sacrifice and service of others,” said Fr. Samuel Ward, Associate Director of Vocations at the Archdiocese of Los Angeles. “The Catholic church has great hope for our new priests and the priesthood going forward.”

Upon conclusion of Mass the new priests gave their first public blessings on the Cathedral Plaza surrounded by family, friends, members of their parish communities, their pastors and other priest mentors.

(According to a report by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, the total number of potential ordinands in the U.S. for the class of 2015 is 595, which is up from 477 in 2014 and 497 in 2013.)

Special Collection—Priest Retirement Fund

THIS weekend, you will be asked to give generously to support the Retirement Fund for Archdiocesan Priests. Currently, the fund provides for more than 100 priests who are retired. Over the next ten years, that number is expected to increase significantly. With minimal compensation, and in many cases, no pension, these men often retire with nothing to fall back upon.

Your contributions can change that.

The Priest Retirement Fund offers us a way to give back to our Catholic priests who have served us so faithfully. Your contribution will help archdiocesan priests live modestly and peacefully in retirement. Help us offer thanks for their years of devotion to God, and faithful service to our parish communities.

Please give generously and use the special envelopes in the pews for the one collection at Offertory time.

SB 128

The California Catholic Conference, along with a broad coalition of physicians, nurses, disability rights and health care advocates, is opposing proposed legislation SB 128.

SB 128 would legalize physician-assisted suicide in CA. Pope Francis reminds us, “The biblical commandment to honor our parents reminds us in a broader sense of our duty to honor all elderly people.” Take action now to protect the elderly and those with disabilities. Visit archla.org/sb128 to learn more, contact your legislator and get involved.
