

Our Lady of Mount Carmel Catholic Church

Erected in 1936, the entire structure reflects the architectural style developed by missionaries, combining the building patterns of the Pueblo Indians with Spanish-Colonial design. Even the landscaping, with carefully selected shrubs and trees is typical.

WHOLE COMMUNITY FAITH SHARING

Week of June 8th — John 20:19-23

Faith Reflection: We have opportunities to be filled with the Holy Spirit, in order to help others every day. If our senses are heightened, we easily can see where people in our lives need help. This help can be a comforting presence by just listening without judgment or prepare a meal for a family in mourning, or in crisis. Many people just need a shoulder, a touch, or a phone call to know they are cared about and loved. Bearing witness to the presence of the Holy Spirit to others who need help can be deeply empowering.

Reflection Question: As working disciples of Christ, we are given the gift of peace. How do I experience this gift, and how do I share it with others? What important work does Jesus ask of me at this time in my life?

Faith Response: This week I will ask Jesus where I am being called to serve at this time in my life.

PRIEST RETIREMENT FUND
ARCHDIOCESE OF LOS ANGELES

Special Collection
This weekend, all parishes throughout the Archdiocese will be asked to support the Retirement Fund for Priests. The Fund provides for more than 100 priests. Over the next 10 years, that number is expected to increase significantly. With minimal compensation and little or no pension, these men retire with nothing to fall back on. Your contribution can change that.

The Fund offers us a way to give back to our Catholic priests; as a thanks for their years of devotion to God and for serving our communities so faithfully. Please give generously and use the special envelopes in the pews for the one collection at Offertory time.

Safeguard Our Children
Bullying Is A Form Of Abuse

Did you know that bullying is a form of abuse, and therefore is forbidden in our Catholic schools? Bullying typically consists of direct behaviors, such as teasing, taunting, threatening, hitting, shoving and stealing. But it might also be indirect, such as spreading rumors that cause victims to be socially isolated through intentional exclusion. Cyberbullying, which involves the use of the Internet or mobile phones to send inappropriate messages and images to or about others, is also behavior that is not tolerated in our Catholic schools. If you suspect bullying of a child at school, please contact our Parish School Principal Karen Regan at 805/969-5965 or our Director of Religious Education, Sister Kathleen Patrice at 805/969-4868, with your concerns.

For particular help, you may call the Archdiocese's Victims Assistance Ministry, (213) 637-7650.

A Joyful RCIA Celebration Last Sunday

Our Parish was blessed last Sunday at the 10:00am Mass with the reception into the Catholic Church of Lisa Arroyo, Kristin Poulton and Penny Lionello. They also celebrated the coming of the Holy Spirit in Confirmation and First Holy Communion. At the same time, Victoria Madrigal and Daniel Bellaart celebrated Confirmation and First Holy Communion.

On May 18th, eight other adults celebrated the coming of the Holy Spirit in Confirmation through the ministry of Bishop Thomas Curry: Nestor Cervantes, Deanna Cervantes, Emma Gallarza, Christopher Jimenez, Nicolas Lopez, Alexa Reyes, Cristina Silva and Evan Soenke. All these adults are part of the RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults) Program that meets on Tuesday evenings with our Pastor, Father Steve and the Parish RCIA Team (Mary Beth Tynan; Pam Langhorne and Marilyn Robison).

RCIA (the Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults) is open to all enquirers interested in learning more about the Catholic Faith. Catholic adults who have not received Confirmation and/or First Holy Communion are also very welcome. A new group will begin in September and will meet in the Spiritual Library from September to May. Please call Father Steve at the Rectory 805 (969-6868) for more information.

PENTECOST SUNDAY

Our Easter joy reaches its fullness on this Pentecost Sunday as we celebrate the coming of the Holy Spirit on the Apostles and First Christians gathered in prayer with Mary the Mother of Jesus in Jerusalem. Great changes take place in their lives as the Holy Spirit comes upon them. Filled with the Holy Spirit they go out into the streets of Jerusalem and to the ends of the earth proclaiming Jesus as the Savior of all. Today the Holy Spirit comes upon us as we pray in the beautiful Sequence Prayer after the Second Reading: "Come, Holy Spirit, come...Shed a ray of light divine! You, of comforters the best; You, the soul's most welcome guest...O most blessed Light divine, shine within these hearts of yours, and our inmost being fill!...Heal our wounds, our strength renew...wash the stains of guilt away; guide the steps that go astray...On the faithful, who adore and confess you, evermore in your sev'nfold gift descend; give them virtue's sure reward; give them your salvation, Lord; give them joys that never end..."

- The special collection for the Retirement Fund for Priests of the Archdiocese of Los Angeles takes place at all Masses this Sunday. We are blessed to have two retired priests at Our Lady of Mount Carmel, Fr. Maurice O'Mahony and Fr. Carroll O'Sullivan. Your generous donations in the special collection this Sunday helps the Retirement Fund for all priests of the Archdiocese. Please use the special envelopes in the pews for your donation to this cause in the one collection at Offertory time.
